

Sherri Lun - Biography

Sherri Lun, named '2020 Performing Artist of the Year' by the South China Morning Post, has garnered acclaim for her "pinpoint clarity and convincing bravura" (Chicago Tribune). Born in Hong Kong and currently based in London, Sherri has swiftly established herself as a rising soloist on the international stage.

A Young Scholar of the Lang Lang International Music Foundation, Sherri made her concerto debut at the Ravinia Festival with the Midwest Young Artists at just 10 years old. Since then, she has performed in prestigious venues including Wigmore Hall in London, Fondation Louis Vuitton in Paris, and Millennium Park in Chicago. Her international appearances span the UK, US, France, Germany, Austria, Italy, Spain, Malaysia, and China. Sherri has also collaborated with esteemed ensembles such as the Salzburg Chamber Soloists, Hong Kong Youth Orchestra, and Kölner Kammerorchester. In December 2023, she released her debut album with KNS Classical, featuring works by Robert Schumann and César Franck.

Highlights of her 2023/24 season include solo recitals in Steinway Hall London, Drapers' Hall, Hammerklavier International Piano Series in Girona, as well as a 4-concert tour in Malaysia. Performances in the upcoming season include the Leeds & Bradford Piano Trail Festival as part of the Leeds International Piano Competition, the Festival Musicale delle Nazioni in Rome, and an Italian concert tour in 2025 organized by the Keyboard Charitable Trust.

Sherri's artistry has been recognized with top prizes in numerous national and international competitions. Most recently, she won First Prize and Audience Prize in the 2024 Birmingham International Piano Competition, following her First Prize win at the 2023 Hong Kong Generation Next Arts Competition. Sherri also won top prizes in the Robert Schumann Competition (Düsseldorf), Zhuhai International Mozart Competition for Young Musicians, ASEAN International Chopin Piano Competition, Singapore International Piano Competition, and Steinway & Sons Youth Piano Competition, to name a few. At the Royal Academy, she won consecutively the 2022 Sterndale Bennett Prize, 2023 Chung Nung Lee Prize, and 2024 Harold Craxton Prize. She was also invited to perform in RAM's 2022 Bicentenary celebration concert in Wigmore Hall. In Hong Kong, she is a frequent winner of local competitions, and her performance has been broadcasted by the Radio Television Hong Kong. Sherri has been selected to participate in the upcoming editions of the Hamamatsu and Busoni International Piano Competitions.

Sherri's passion for music led her to participate in festivals, including the Oxford Piano Festival, Virtuoso and Belcanto Festival Lucca, Pianale International Piano Academy, Frost Chopin Academy, Beijing International Music Festival, and the International Summer Academy at Universitat Mozarteum Salzburg, where she was selected to perform in Wiener Saal of Stiftung Mozarteum. Sherri was awarded Highest Scorer of the Year by Trinity College London for her licentiate diploma piano recital in 2017.

Born in 2003, Sherri majored in piano and viola as a junior student of the Hong Kong Academy for Performing Arts. She is currently studying under Prof. Christopher Elton at the Royal Academy of Music on a full scholarship, supported by both the Academy and the Hong Kong Scholarship for Excellence Scheme. She is also an artist with KNS Classical and the Keyboard Charitable Trust. For more information, visit www.sherrilun.com.
